OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA USA 23219

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Junior League of Richmond has a 100-year history of advancing women's leadership for meaningful community impact through volunteer action, collaboration, and training; and

WHEREAS, Find the Good Day, observed on September 17, 2026, encourages individuals to recognize and celebrate the positive aspects of their communities and take action to uplift others; and

WHEREAS, the City of Richmond acknowledges the importance of kindness, compassion, and service in building better communities; and

WHEREAS, the Junior League of Richmond continues to play a significant role in empowering individuals to make lasting changes that benefit the community; and

WHEREAS, the Junior League has created positive change in Richmond through thoughtful planning of inclusive events for children and families, partnering with Richmond Public Schools, fundraising to support nonprofit work, and operating Richmond's favorite thrift store to benefit the community, among many other initiatives; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Danny Avula, Mayor of the City of Richmond, Virginia, do hereby proclaim September 17, 2026, as in the City of Richmond and commend the Junior League of Richmond for its century-long commitment to strengthening the Richmond community through volunteer service and leadership.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused it to be affixed, the seal of the City of Richmond, this 17th day of September 2026.
